PRINCE AT KAILUA

Great Enthusiasm for
Son of the Islands.

HILO, Sept. 4.—Monday, August 25, was a gala day at Kailua. Being steamer day, the usual crowd of business men and pleasure seekers had congregated around the wharf and along the beach, but it was evident that some extra attraction had drawn many men to town who are seldom seen there.

Throughout the Kona the news had spread that Prince Kalaniana'ole had come to delight the hearts of the people of Kona with his well timed oratory, and the excitement grew still greater when it was known that he would be accompanied by three of the best speakers of the land.

A mass meeting in the big church was arranged for noon, when the steamer would have left and business men be at leisure, but as Kanuha, one of the Prince's three companions, had to leave on the steamer, he ascended the tribune in front of Kaelemakule's store and spoke for half an hour to an enthusiastic audience.

In his speech he adjured his hearers to earnestly listen to the words of the Prince, of whose disinterestedness and love for the people he assured them.

He laid great stress on the fact that the deplorable failure of the last legislature was due to its being composed of so few men of principles and so many without, that a man without principle could not be a gentleman and was unfit to represent the people.

The steamer having departed the great bell tolled and the masses wended their way to the church, where they were received and shown to their seats by ushers in full dress.

J. K. Nahale, the deputy sheriff for North Kona who, by the way, seems to have quitted the Republican party, was elected to the chair, and introduced the first speaker, Prince Kalaniana'ole.

After stating in a few well chosen words why he appeared here before the people he turned in his gentlemanly way to the few foreigners present and gave them in English a concise synopsis of his intended speech.

The speaker was listened to by all his hearers with intense interest and was frequently applauded. His earnest and manly manner left no room for doubt that his words came straight from a big heart, and they surely found their way to responsive hearts, words that cannot fall bearing fruit in due season.

He told his hearers that he came not as a candidate soliciting their votes, or as an office seeker, nor to tell them for whom to vote, but that he came to them as an educator in this new era of politics which he had studied closely for that purpose.

He explained the county system with its duties and privileges, its educational value in preparing the Territory for statehood, machine politics and party systems on the mainland by which the minority could control the majority, and proper use of the remaining public lands. The whole oration was delivered with intense feeling, but without passion or exaggeration of any kind.

The next speaker was Mahaulu, who enlarged upon the Prince's speech and whose pleasant manner and graceful gestures captivated even those whose education in Hawaiian had been neglected.

The third and last member was Makau, a Home Rule member of the last legislature. He began in rather a dry way, giving a short history of the political changes in recent years since the downfall of the monarchy. Little by little he warmed up to his subject, and when he came to speak of the achievements of the last legislature, when he described the doings of himself and colleagues in language bristling with witty ridicule and sarcasm, there was such shouting, such laughing, such stamping, such clapping as the walls of that old church never echoed before. With three thundering hurrahs the meeting was dissolved.—Tribune.

LASSOOED A TURKEY.
Major Purdy, who returned from Waima on Tuesday, reports Senator Burton and party as having great sport in hunting wild cattle, pigs and turkeys on Sam Parker's land. Senator Burton and his friend, Mr. King, who is with him, are used to hunting big game, and say that the sport in Waima excels anything in their experience and that the cowboys in Waima can give the western cowboys cards and spades and win out.

"I never saw anything like it," said the Senator to Major Purdy. "Why, we started a flock of wild turkeys the other day and got two. The balance flew off, and at the same time one of the cowboys started and in a few minutes returned with one of the birds; he had lassoed it on the wing. I am satisfied that they could 'lass' a quail."

The Senator says the party will surely visit Hilo and the volcano.—Herald.

MAY GROW BANANAS.
John Lycurgus is one of the men who have become interested in banana culture in Hawaii. He is interested in some land near Hilo and if reports from San Francisco are satisfactory he will immediately begin cultivating 100 acres of land in Kaumana. The success met with by "Kaiwiki" Brown, who now has 12,500 plants in bearing, has induced others to go into the business.—Herald.

THE CONSPIRATORS.
Hayashi, one of the persons arrested in connection with the murder of Motohiro, was discharged by Judge Hapai at the close of the hearing on Tuesday. The Judge did not consider that enough evidence had been presented to warrant holding him to the grand jury. Hobataki and Sayo (w) were discharged at the request of the prosecution. The others were held for trial.—Herald.

REGISTRATION IN HILO.
During the four hours yesterday afternoon, while the board of registration set in Firemen's Hall, 70 voters enrolled their names. The board found that a number of those registered were of the opinion that having registered two years ago it was unnecessary to do so this year. This is a mistake; voters must register before every election. Many aliens who have taken out their first papers are anxious to vote, but are waiting for an opinion on the subject.—Herald.

DIED OF APOPLEXY.

Mohiro, a Japanese cane planter at Kaumana, died suddenly at his residence last Tuesday after a visit to Hilo. It was rumored soon after that deceased had been roughly handled by Captain Lake of the police department. A post-mortem was held and at the coroner's inquest it was shown that Captain Lake had never seen the man and that death was due to apoplexy.—Herald.

Ah Kim, the well known young Chinese interpreter, captured a freak frog last Tuesday in the ponds near Front street which is attracting much attention in the show windows of the Hilo drug store. The frog has five legs, three kickers and the two normal front legs. The third hind leg joins the body at the abdomen and is about as useless as a fifth wheel to a wagon. This freak frog has also a double pair of eyes, one of which is but partially developed and needs the attention of an oculist. The croaker is in size a typical Hilo specimen, weighing perhaps a half pound.—Tribune.

To the Public.

In order to accommodate children who wish to be admitted to the Kona Orphanage a new building should be erected. There are not sufficient funds to buy material. Five hundred dollars is needed. Those wishing to assist in raising this sum can leave the money at Bishop's bank.

I CURE MEN!

With Lame Backs, With Weak Nerves,

With Rheumatism, With Lost Vitality

A man is like a steam engine. It takes steam to make him go. My belt pumps that steam into him.

That's how it makes so many old men feel young.

Mr. A. Crawford, Pokegama, Ore., says: "I am 70 years old, but your belt has made me feel like 35."

Try it, you weak men; you will find youth and vigor in it after everything else fails.

Call and test it, free, or I will send you my illustrated book, free, if you will enclose this ad.

Halpruner's

There is no more simple way of curing a bruise or sprain than using Halpruner's—rub it in well—until you know it has penetrated—saturate a flannel with Halpruner's and bind it about the injured parts—that's all and that's enough.

Halpruner's

All druggists should sell Halpruner's—if yours refuses to supply you the Halpruner Medical Mfg. Co., 28 California St., San Francisco, will send you a large bottle by prepaid expressage on receipt of $1.

I have used Dr. Halpruner's Pain Remover for poison oak, sprained ankle and a very troublesome corn. I also gave a little to a friend who has been troubled with muscular rheumatism for months. He used your remedy for four days and the rheumatism has entirely disappeared. I can recommend it to remove all the above ailments, as I have suffered from all of them. I never found any remedy that would cure so quickly and thoroughly.
